JOHN BELL OF TENNESSEE.

AIR—"Auld Lang Syne."

There is a man of noble heart,
In Tennessee does dwell,
Who scorns the Traitor Lincoln's raid,
His name is JOHN BELL.

Chorus—

For old John Bell so dear,
For old John Bell,
We'll give three loud and hearty cheers,
For old John Bell.

Though called a rebel by his foes,
His heart in truth doth dwell,
He scorns the Tory Lincoln's raid,
His name is John Bell.*

*Chorus—*For old John Bell so dear, &c.

He hears the Northern vandals voice,
Shout over hill and dell,
He laughs at Nigger Lincoln's raid,
His name is John Bell.

*Chorus—*For old John Bell so dear, &c.

Let them advancee in Tennessee,
His guns are sure to tell,
He dares the tread of Yankee sneaks,
His name is John Bell.

*Chorus—*For old John Bell so dear, &c.

Let Northern fanatics beware,
Of famous old John Bell,
For if they come in Tennessee,
He'll surely ring their knell.

*Chorus—*For old John Bell so dear, &c.
